

Cape Coral Boat Club has more than 250 dry slips for boats 20 feet and longer, and is one of the largest boat storage facilities in Lee County. Just seven minutes boating time to the river, the club provides owners and renters with quick access to the waterways.

Imagine enjoying lifetime waterway access with your own piece of real estate in the form of a dry slip rackominium. It's just like owning land: You have exclusive use of a particular indoor slip. Use it for your own enjoyment, or sell it just like other property. Or, if you are not using it for a period of time, we'll even help you lease it. There are many opportunities!

Securing a permanent home for your vessel today may likely prove to be your smartest investment in the years to come. Call us to find out more.

You've made a significant investment in a fabulous boat. Now, there's only one way to maintain its good looks and value: Storing it in your own permanently deeded "rackominium" at Cape Coral Boat Club. Becoming a member is an exciting opportunity to invest in a piece of real estate that will bring significant returns in terms of protecting your precious vessel.

If boating in Southwest Florida is important to you, you owe it to yourself to do whatever it takes to keep your boat in excellent shape. With a rackominium at Cape Coral Boat Club, your vessel is safe and secure, away from the sun, and out of the driving rain and other brutal weather. Plus, you'll enjoy a multitude of sensational benefits and amenities reserved exclusively for members.

So when we say, "Less Work, More Boating," we mean it. That means less hassles, and more fun and relaxation on the water for you!

It all adds up to unmatched convenience, good times and a safe place for your investment dollars!
